PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Well not only do I get to do a Presidents message, I get to play editor of the newsletter this month.

Judy's home is under storm repair and she has enough to take care of so I'm happy to help if I can.

We're coming to the end of another year and what a show we have in store for you this month. Our friends and favs Sabine River Bend open the show and a true Texas Treat The Purple Hulls are here to help us celebrate The holidays and then long time BABA friends Ed, Becky & Doug Trio

Thank to Southern Style and Pet Rooster for holding down the fort last month. We had a small but energetic crowd. With everything going on in the Bluegrass world everyone was scattered all over the state. We sure had a good time though.

I want to wish everyone a very happy holiday season. Merry Christmas and Happy new Years to you all. I hope you and your loved ones get everything you need and some of what you want.

We're working on some exciting things for next year, workshops and special guest bands. Keep checking and we'll have them posted soon

I want to thank you for your support. Without you and your support there wouldn't be a BABA Show and jam every month. Your membership dues and donations are what make it all happen. We need your continued support to keep BABA strong. Thanks to all the volunteers. When you see the BABA volunteer tell them thanks for all the hard work it takes to bring these shows to you every month. They are all un-paid volunteers that do this out of love for the music and to bring a little joy to our lives.

Pick on.
Rick

Do you know why there are no banjos on Star Trek?

Because it's the future.

A husband and wife were driving through Louisiana. As they approached Natchitoches, they started arguing about the pronunciation of the town. They argued back and forth, then they stopped for lunch. At the counter, the husband asked the blonde waitress, "Before we order, could you please settle an argument for us?"

Would you please pronounce where we are very slowly?"

She leaned over the counter and said, "Burrr-gerrr Kiing."

I was wondering why the ball kept getting bigger and bigger, and then it hit me.

Q: If you have 13 apples in one hand and 10 oranges in the other, what do you have?

A: Big hands.

Paddy and Murphy are havin' a pint in the pub, when some scuba divers come on the TV. Paddy says, "Murphy, why is it them deep sea divers always sit on the side of the boat with them air tanks on their backs, and fall backwards out of the boat?" Murphy thinks for a minute then says, "That's easy. It's 'cos if they fell forwards, they'd still be in the boat!"

Q: What's red and bad for your teeth?

A: A brick.

What a great opportunity! How often does a vintage Kay Bass come up for sale? Don't wait too long, these sweethearts are few and far between, especially when they're as well-kept as this little darlin'.

This is a 1939 model, and includes a carrying case so you don't even have to go find one - this is a package deal for the lucky new owner. See the photos below; asking price is only $2,000.

 TRAILER & EQUIPMENT FOR SALE ***

I would like to sell the equipment for $600 at least and the trailer to hold it for $2000. The trailer only has about 60 miles total on it. It was only used about 6 Saturdays (1st Saturday of each month) and about 5 miles each direction. There is a list of all equipment.

There are definitely 2 microphones that are meant to carry the sound from an entire group instead of having a microphone at each musician.

I prefer to be contacted via email at betty2bigdogs@hotmail.com, but you can call 281-674-3220 and leave a message and I will call back. Photos available on request. Thanks, Betty Kaechler

About BABA

The Bay Area Bluegrass Association (BABA) was organized in 1986 and incorporated in 1987 under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. The primary purpose of BABA is to preserve, encourage, and promote Bluegrass and Bluegrass gospel music as an American art form. BABA promotes Bluegrass through being active in community events, fund raisers, festivals, and monthly shows. BABA is a 501(c)(3) tax deductible organization; see any Director for information.

The monthly show is free to the public and features Bluegrass from the local and national scene. The stage show begins at 6:00 PM, but pickers are welcome to bring their instruments and come earlier to jam. Tasty, inexpensive food is available at the show, and there are raffles, door prizes, and Bluegrass merchandise for sale. This is a 'no alcohol' event, but there's plenty of music and great family fun!

Proceeds from donations, sponsors, memberships, sales, and raffles are used to keep the doors open and the regular shows free to the public. They also maintain and replace sound equipment, storage, security, and expense of keeping the music playing. We thank you for your attendance, your generosity, and your love of the music.

Anton "Tony" Ullrich

is celebrating 45 years (1972 - 2017) of teaching folks in the greater Houston area to play Bluegrass style banjo.

Your private banjo lessons begin with an introduction to BanjerTab's unique approach to creating syncopation (that 'ahead of the beat' bounce) that you hear in the recordings of the first generation greats, who had no other form of learning than creating their banjo style 'as they went.'

Once you're familiar with BanjerTab, choose the area of playing you want to focus on: Scruggs style, full-chord back-up, mid-neck / high-neck picking, melodic style (fiddle tunes /back-up), or specific songs you have always wanted to play.

The expertise gained through 54 years of playing and 45 years of teaching is available to you now. Choose videotape lessons or come for private lessons in Houston.

PICK YOUR NEWS

The weather doesn't get much better than crisp and cool like it was at the October Pickin' & Grinning Festival at Coushatta RV Ranch in Bellville, TX. Besides the surprise of cool weather, the lineup of bands was wonderful. There were a lot of new faces onstage from Nashville to Indiana. Kristy Cox (Australia, via Nashville), Edgar Laundermilk (Georgia), Vickie Vaughn Band (Nashville, TN), Little Roy and Lizzy Show (Georgia), Jeff Robertson & Friends (Texas), Williamson Branch (Tennessee), His Harmony (Texas), Catahoula Drive (Louisiana), and (my personal favorite) Blue Mafia (Indiana).

It was a treat to listen to so many bands and hang out with friends and our bluegrass family.

On the second night, the weather chased all the folks inside, but that did not slow the action. The bands were energized and so was the crowd. There was some dancing and cheering for the music and Scott Armstrong was at his best as he announced the bands while David and Collee kept everything running smoothly. There were lots of volunteers, good food, jewelry, gifts, and funnel cakes to be found. Of course, the corndog pusher (you know who you are Fred) was sharing his love of those crispy treats with all his friends. I finally tried one myself and now I know what all the hype is about. Yumm! (continued on page 19)

There was a beginners Jam Workshop headed by (bless her heart) Sue Knorr. She has a love for the beginners and is faithful to include them in the action. They are the future of bluegrass. Additionally, there was a baseball game on TV both nights that forced some folks to play and watch at the same time. We didn't see much of those folks, but we sure em hollering and cheering as the Astros won their games. That was an eventful weekend.

Thank you to all who made this event possible. These bluegrass festivals are a comfort and a blessing to so many of us. When my world feels chaotic and stressful, I remember there is still music that brings me back to my roots and people who are friendly and caring. Like the words from a song my 'brother' Rick wrote, "The music takes me home." (I know..."shut up and sing, Pauline") tee hee. Be blessed and keep bluegrass alive...see you at the next show.
