G C G
Ch. In the gravel yard, with a number for my name

D G
 Making little rocks out of big rocks all day

G C G
 Oh, the work is mighty hard in the gravel yard

D G
 I'll never be a free man, so they say.

Instrumental break

G C G
1. Warden hear my plea, listen now to me

D G
 I killed a man that I caught with my wife

G C G
 You'd probably do the same, so why am I to blame

D G
 Sentenced to the rest of my life

Chorus—Instrumental break

G C G
2. In the driven rain with a ball and chain

D G
 My hammer rings a low and mournful sound

G C G
 I sing a little song for the one who done me wrong

D G
 She's lyin' in the cold, cold ground

Chorus—Instrumental break—Chorus—end ---- G---/D---/G---/G---/
